

Barnett, Billie Jean Turner

Death: Dec. 3, 1997

Published: Dec. 5, 1997

Publisher: Mississippi Press

BARNETT HP 12-5-97
Billie Jean Turner Barnett, 68, of Columbia, Miss., died December 3, 1997 in Hattiesburg, Miss. She was born June 30, 1929 in Union, Miss. Mrs. Barnett was a retired seamstress from the Stag Shop and was a member of Kreole United Methodist Church. She was preceded in death by her son, Richard "Dickie" Barnett, Sr.

Survivors include one son and daughter in law, William L. "Bill" and Jo Barnett of Pascagoula; one daughter and son in law, Mary and Phil Peters of Columbia; two sisters, Irene Graham of Nashville, Tenn. and Edwina West of Waynesboro; three brothers, George Turner of Carthage, Miss., J. G. Turner of Philadelphia, Miss. and Harry Turner of Jackson, Miss.; three granddaughters, Denise Peters Valdez and Crystal Peters, both of Columbia, Miss. and Samantha Barnett of Texas; one grandson, Richard Barnett, Jr. of Texas and one great grandson, Caleb Turner Valdez of Columbia, Miss.; nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Visitation will be Saturday, December 6, 1997 from 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. at Holder-Wells Funeral Home in Moss Point.

Graveside services will be held Saturday, December 6, 1997 at 11:30 a.m. in Machpelah Cemetery, Pascagoula with the Rev. Reed Houston officiating.

Arrangements by Holder-Wells Funeral Home, Moss Point, Miss.